The 30th Taipei Culture Award

Important Notes for Applicants

1. Objective : To recognize individuals who have made significant contributions to the shaping of Taipei's cultural identity through the integration of culture into everyday life, the renewal of tradition in modern forms, and the projection of local culture onto the international stage.
2. Recipients : The Taipei Culture Award is bestowed upon a maximum of two recipients each year. In the event that no suitable candidates apply, the award may not be presented. Each awardee will receive one trophy and a cash prize of TWD1 million.
3. Application Process
 - (a) Individuals and groups of any nationality, gender, or age are eligible to apply or be nominated.
 - (b) Private individuals, government agencies, and non-governmental organizations are all eligible to nominate candidates.
 - (c) The previous recipients of this award are not eligible to reapply or be renominated.
4. Documentation
 - (a) Submission Period : Submissions will be accepted until 17:30 on June 15th (according to postmark for postal submissions, email timestamp for electronic submissions).
 - (b) Required Documents : Form 1 (Self-Nomination Application Form), Form 2 (Letter of Recommendation)
 - (i) Self-nomination: Individuals or groups shall submit Form 1.
 - (ii) Nomination by recommendation: Form 2 shall be completed and submitted by the recommender (including individuals, government agencies, or organizations).
 - (iii) If additional space is needed on the forms, candidates may append additional sheets as necessary. Candidates and recommender must provide valid contact phone numbers and addresses. Incomplete or improperly completed documents will not be processed.
 - (iv) Self-Nomination Candidates must provide all required information on the application forms, sign them personally, and affix seals (印章). With their signature, candidates agree to comply with the regulations outlined in this application guide.
 - (v) Application documents and supporting attachments will not be returned. Please retain your own copies.
 - (c) In addition to the above application documents, editable electronic versions (Word file format) must be provided.

5. Submission: To accommodate digitalization and promote paperless society, applications can be submitted by email as well as by post. Applicants may choose one of the following methods of submission.
- (a) Online: Before the deadline, sign, stamp, and scan the completed application documents, and submit the scans along with editable electronic files in Word format to the Taipei Culture Award Selection Committee at tca1997@gov.taipei.
 - (b) By Post: Before the deadline, sign and stamp the completed application documents and submit them along with editable electronic files (e.g. on a CD or USB drive) to the 30th Taipei Culture Award Selection Committee, Department of Cultural Affairs, Taipei City Government (4th Floor Northwest Building, No. 1, City Hall Road, Xinyi District, Taipei City 110204, Taiwan).

Taipei Culture Award Guidelines

1. In order to promote the integration of culture into everyday life, the renewal of tradition in modern forms, and the projection of local culture onto the international stage, the Taipei City Government (hereafter “the City Government”) hereby lays down these Guidelines for the conferring of the Culture Award in recognition of individuals or groups that have made outstanding contributions to the shaping of the cultural character of Taipei City (hereafter “the City”).
2. The competent authority for these Guidelines is the City Government, and the executing authority is the Department of Cultural Affairs of the City Government.
3. Eligible recipients of the Culture Award include individuals and organisations.
4. Nominations for the Culture Award shall be made as follows:
 - (a) By recommendation of the executing authority.
 - (b) By recommendation of government agencies or organizations.
 - (c) By recommendation of experts or scholars.
 - (d) By self-nomination.Nominations under sub-paragraphs (b) to (d) of the preceding paragraph shall be submitted in writing or in electronic form, together with the relevant supporting documents, before the deadline announced by the executing authority.
5. Selection of award recipients shall be conducted by a Culture Award Selection Committee (hereafter “the Committee”) set up by the City Government.

The Committee shall consist of one Chairperson, who shall be the Commissioner of the Department of Cultural Affairs and who shall convene and preside over meetings, and nine to fifteen additional members appointed by the Mayor from among scholars and experts. Members shall serve a term of two years and may be reappointed; vacancies arising during a term may be filled for the remainder of the original term.
6. Committee members shall serve without remuneration; however, external members may receive attendance fees or travel expenses in accordance with relevant regulations.
7. Selection of award recipients shall require the attendance of more than two-thirds of Committee members and approval by at least three-quarters of those present, after which the results shall be submitted to the Mayor for final approval.

Committee members shall recuse themselves from the selection process under any of the following circumstances:

 - (a) The nominee was recommended by the Committee member pursuant to Article 4, subparagraph (c).
 - (b) The nominee is the Committee member, or the member’s spouse, former spouse, a blood relative within the fourth degree, or an in-law within the third degree, or has previously stood in such a relationship.
 - (c) The Committee member, or the member’s spouse or former spouse, has a relationship of joint rights holder or joint obligor with the nominee.
 - (d) Any other circumstance likely to compromise the Committee member’s impartial performance of their duties.

8. In principle, no more than two recipients shall be selected each year. If no suitable candidate is identified, the award may be withheld, subject to approval and public announcement by the Mayor. Following the annual announcement, each recipient shall be presented by the Mayor with a trophy and a cash prize of NT$1,000,000.
9. In order to promote and publicise the professional achievements of award recipients, the executing authority may give priority to recommending or subsidising recipients to represent the City in international or intercity exchange activities.
10. If a recipient of the Culture Award is found to have violated relevant laws or regulations, the executing authority may, depending on the severity of the violation, convene a special meeting of the Committee to evaluate the circumstances and determine appropriate action.
